

The Darkness Within

Where darkness lurks, beyond the sight,
Where the wicked hide in the black night.
Where trust is betrayed where souls are torn
Where nightmares scream... where evil is born.

Where fear and pain rule the land
Where evil smiles, and where nightmares now stand.
Where the heart is dark, where hope has fled
Where betrayal rules, and darkness leads.

Where love is lost, and pain is found
Where nightmares dance, where hope's left drowned.
Evil laughs and heart breaks,
the soul screams, seeking escape.

A place of terror, a place of dread
the wicked thrive, and the innocent lie dead
Where betrayal is king and love has died
Where the darkness had grown, and light had fled.
